The Cardinall's Musick

Mon 12 July 2010, 7.30pm Wigmore Hall 36 Wigmore Street London W1U 2BP United Kingdom

(Not an ILAMS concert but one we highly recommend!)

The Cardinall's Musick, vocal ensemble

Andrew Carwood, director

'Il siglo d'oro' – the Golden Age – was the name that Spaniards gave to their great flowering of music and culture in the 16th century. Spain brought forth some of the finest writers of the age and the Virgin Mary was a popular subject with all of them. Francisco Guerrero was known as 'el cantor de Maria'. Much of his highly characterful music was dedicated to the Virgin, from well-crafted four-part pieces to the more splendid double-choir numbers. This fascinating exploration of music from 16th-century Spain sets Guerrero alongside his contemporaries and colleagues Morales, Esquivel, Vivanco, Alonso Lobo and the brightest star of all, Tom □s Luis da Victoria.

BBC Singers

Fri 9 July 2010, 6.00pm St Giles Cripplegate Fore Street, Barbican London EC2Y 8DA United Kingdom (Not an ILAMS concert, but one we highly recommend!)

The natural world and music from the Portuguese-speaking world are the twin themes of this year's City of London Festival. This concert brings together both strands, with entertaining portraits of animals and insects by Elizabeth Maconchy and Sir John Tavener; Miguel Azguime's contemporary setting of words by the 16th-century mathematician Pedro Nunes, and Villa-Lobos' vibrant Prelude and Fugue for unaccompanied voices.

Machaca

Tue 6 July 2010, 7.30pm Bol⊡var Hall 54 Grafton Way London W1T 5DL United Kingdom

(Not an ILAMS concert, but one we highly recommend!)

'Machaca's take on contemporary South American work, from Brazil's Villa-Lobos to Argentina's Piazzolla, with lesser knowns such as Venezuela's Antonio Lauro, breaks moulds for agility of play and the airy quality of their music, which darts deep while remaining subtle and delicate.' Jan Fairley, The List

After a sold out launch of their new CD, 'Los Ambulantes' at London's South Bank Centre during La Linea '10, the virtuoso ensemble appear at London's Bolivar Hall with a programme to mark Bicentenary celebrations of Venezuela, Mexico, and Argentina.

Artur Pizarro

Thu 1 July 2010, 7.30pm Stationers' Hall Ave Maria Lane London EC4M 7DD United Kingdom

(Not an ILAMS concert, but one we highly recommed!)

Artur Pizarro, among whose accolades has been winning the Leeds International Piano Competition, is one of Portugal's foremost performers and a specially featured artist of this year's Festival. This concert really captures the essence of the 2010 Festival. The Portuguese-speaking world is represented by the Brazilian Villa-Lobos, who pays tribute to both Bach and Chopin (200 years old in 2010). Bach is the parent of this programme, revered by Schumann (also 200 years old), Chopin and Villa-Lobos; and Schumann, in his 'Forest Scenes', perfectly reflects the Festival's environmental theme.

Daniela Lehner

Thu 1 July 2010, 6.00pm St Andrew Holborn 7 St Andrew Street London EC4A 3AB United Kingdom

(Not an ILAMS concert, but one we highly recommend!)

Daniela Lehner, mezzo-soprano Jos□ Luis Gayo, piano

Daniela Lehner's musically diverse recital captures the essence of this year's Festival, moving effortlessly from the central Europe of Schumann, whose bicentenary we celebrate, to the South America of Villa-Lobos via some real 'discoveries' from both sides of the Atlantic. The setting is Christopher Wren's largest building after St Paul's Cathedral.
